.....RESPONDENT

Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue a writ of mandamus or any other appropriate writ order or direction, declaring the action of the respondent as being arbitrary and violative of Principles of Natural Justice while directing the respondent to permit the petitioner for interview to the post of Junior Attendant (Electrical)in the Respondents Office schedule to be held on 9.12.2004 or any other date without insisting that petitioners name should be sponsored by the concerned employment Exchange and pass.

Counsel for the Petitioner:MR.P.VENKAT RAO (Not present)

Counsel for the Respondent No.: Mr.C.KODANDA RAM

The Court made the following :

O R D E R:

The writ petition is filed seeking a direction to the respondent to permit the petitioner for interview to the post of Junior Attendant (Electrical) in the Respondent's Office scheduled to be held on 9.12.2004 or any other date without insisting that petitioner's name should be sponsored by the Employment Exchange concerned.

None appeared for the petitioner on 6-12-2004, 7-12-2004 and 28-1-2005.

According to the prayer of the writ petition, the interviews are already over and therefore, there is no lis to be adjudicated in this writ petition. The question of granting permission does not arise in the circumstances of the case and therefore, it is liable to be dismissed at the stage of admission.

The Writ Petition is accordingly dismissed. There shall be no order as to costs.

31st January, 2005.
